378: Adam Christensen / I'm Not Done With You Yet (2019)

Adam Christensen is an artist who lives and works in London. His research reflects upon the mise-en-scene of a subject, its construction and representation. Through singing, Madam, his alter-ego, transports the audience into a private world of love and desire, melancholy and loss. The lines between the artist and viewer, life and fiction are blurred, in order to explore the everyday as spectacle.
