553: Christina Dimitriadis / End And 11 (2012)

C-print from the series END AND

The performance and the photographic series END AND is a collaboration between actress Stefania Gouliotis and artist Christina Dimitriadis, performed in the Kunsthalle Athena, during the exhibition "Farewell", curated by Marina Fokidis and Themis Bazaka. The performance was directed by Christina Dimitriadis. Stefania Gouliotis is isolated in a room and has to deal with a prolonged period of isolation and separation. In the performance, as well as in the photographs we observe Stefania moving quietly throughout the room, dealing with the unbearable situation of loss. Through the act of scratching the wall with a hair clip she uncovers an old layer of the wall, a pinkish color, almost like skin. Through this act she progressively transforms the room in a life size painting and gives another dimension to it. As the drawing grows, past and present are joined and slowly a new space is created and ultimately a new life.
