

DIREKTE AUKTION ART, ABER FAIR

733: Andrea D'Auria / Martians on Venus 3 (2020)

C-type Archival Print.

Influenced by his work as a graphic designer and his experiences within punk subcultures, he catches the vibrations of the city's margins and mavericks.

He depicts raw realities through rare compositions that channel Renaissance, Surrealism or Pop Art and plays with the sacred, revealing beauty in the transient space between people.
